DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 7-27 in the reply filed on April 28, 2005, is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 7-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is not clear as to how exactly the tabs function or the preservation device is used. It is not seen how the tabs are inserted into the casing. Also, it is not known what the dotted lines in figures 3-8 represent.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

There are a number of claims that lack sufficient antecedent basis including claims 8, 9, and 12, which recite the limitation "the envelope," and claims 10 and 14, which recite the limitation "cylindrical portion." It is suggested that all of the claims be reviewed for any other potential 35 U.S.C. §112, 2nd paragraph issues.

Art Unit: 1761

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 7-15, 17-24, 26, and 27, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schmidt-Gabriel, DE 197 47 911 A1. Schmidt-Gabriel discloses a preservation device comprising an envelope (A), made of an elastomer, and a multiplicity of protruding tabs (B and C), with two of the protruding tabs (C) being opposite each other and having a greater length than the other tabs (see figures 1-3) that forms an airtight seal when used to cover a container (abstract).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 16 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schmidt-Gabriel. The actual thickness of the membrane in Schmidt-Gabriel is not known. However, it would have been obvious to use a thickness in the range claimed in order to provide a cover that would not easily break or puncture, while at the same time minimizing costs by using the smallest amount of material to do so.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Brandstein, U.S. Patent 2,080,108, discloses covers that elastically and contractibly secure around an article. Kovac, U.S. Patent 3,862,614, discloses sheets of elastic used to cover containers.
